Hey Eddie,

I called Gregg personally and explained to him what was going on. I told him that you were not involved in any misconduct of any sort. I told him You were let go because you were spreading yourself thin from job to job coming to work tired and sleeping the tour away. I also said that when you work you're a great employee and to expect a lot from you.

I have no doubt you'll be a great Lieutenant.. Good Luck talk soon
